

Engagement Activities of Stakeholders in Healthcare

Heider Jeffer

Stakeholders and Their Engagement Activities

Patients

- Participation in Care: Engaging actively in their own healthcare processes, such as attending appointments and following treatment plans.
(Base engagement: 0.6)
- Feedback and Communication: Providing input on care experiences and maintaining open communication with healthcare providers.
(Base engagement: 0.5)
- Health Literacy: Understanding health information to make informed decisions.
(Base engagement: 0.55)
- Preventative Care: Taking measures to prevent illnesses, such as vaccinations and regular screenings.
(Base engagement: 0.7)

Doctors

- Direct Care Delivery: Providing hands-on medical treatment and care to patients.
(Base engagement: 0.8)
- Professional Development: Participating in training, education, and certifications to enhance skills.
(Base engagement: 0.7)
- Collaboration: Working with other doctors, nurses, and stakeholders to improve patient outcomes.
(Base engagement: 0.75)
- Research and Advocacy: Contributing to medical research and advocating for better healthcare policies.
(Base engagement: 0.65)

Nurses

- Patient-Centered Care: Providing compassionate and personalized care to patients.
(Base engagement: 0.75)
- Coordination and Communication: Ensuring smooth communication between healthcare teams and managing patient care coordination.
(Base engagement: 0.8)
- Professional Development: Engaging in training and certifications to enhance nursing expertise.
(Base engagement: 0.7)
- Community Involvement: Participating in public health initiatives and local healthcare outreach.
(Base engagement: 0.6)

Administrators

- Operational Oversight: Managing daily operations in healthcare facilities to ensure efficiency.
(Base engagement: 0.5)
- Stakeholder Coordination: Facilitating collaboration among patients, providers, and other stakeholders.
(Base engagement: 0.45)
- Strategic Planning: Developing long-term goals and plans for healthcare organizations.
(Base engagement: 0.55)
- Data-Driven Decision-Making: Using data analytics to inform decisions and improve outcomes.
(Base engagement: 0.6)